MONETARY & COMMERCIAL.

[Special to the Evansville Journal.] Weekly New York Market Review. NEW YORK, Dec. 24, 1866.

Editors Journal: The general markets remain in the same quiet condition as for some weeks past. The approaching holidays operate as a further check on large transactions, and it is said that much less than the usual shopping" is now being done.

THE MONEY MARKET in the last few days has been quite active, and at an advance in rates; borrowers find it more difficult to supply their wants. Call loans, on stock collaterals, are worth 7 per cent. Commercial paper 8 to 10 per cent. Government Bonds have declined; 5-20's of 1862 are 106%, and 7-30's 105. Gold declined all week; opened on Monday at 13834; declined on Saturday to 1224; closing on Saturday at 133%; and has ruled to-day at about 133%. Foreign Exchange is lower; Bankers' sixty day bills on London 109, and commercial drafts 1 to 11/2 per cent lower.

BREADSTUFFS-Were more active early in the week, but since Tuesday have been quiet. Flours had advanced 50 to 75c on low grades, but since then have receded 15 to 30c per barrel, and the market very quiet under the fall of gold, and the falling off consequently in the shipping demand. The medium and extra grades of Flour have been quiet, and prices irregular-Corn has oeen quiet under the gold decline and unfavorable news from Europe. We quote Western mixed at $1 10 per bushel.

ADDITIONAL RIVER NEWS.

The additional arrivals and departures last night were the Liberty No. 2, Louisville to Memphis; Morning Star, Louisville and return; Armada, Cairo to Evansville; Chattanooga, to Nashville ...... Our duty in attending the Council prevented us having the pleasure of meeting our good friends of the Liberty, but we received a memento of their kind remembrance in the shape of a large pitcher of egg-nogg, which our friends assure us was passingly delicious-we don't drink ourself, but we appreciate the kindness none the less. A merry Christmas and a happy New Year to the wild-winged and her genial crew......The Morning Star was late, not arriving until after dark. We did not learn the cause of her detention .... The Chattanooga left for Nashville at 9% o'clock last night, with a staving good trip.......The grand armada, the most gallant steamer on the lower Ohio, arrived from Cairo, at 9 o'clock last night, with a big trip of both freight and people. She had 120 bales of cotton and much other freights, including several hogs heads of tobacco. The Pittsburg Clique has had enough of the Armada, and propose to try the Charmer a whack We shall see what we shall see The Armada made five unsuccessful attempts to get coal on her down trip, and was compelled to use wood from Battery Rock to Cairo. There was no taking the bank in the game ...... The crew of the Quickstep confessed as much. She came from Cairo in 27 hours with a full load, and made all her packet landings. She goes to Cairo to-day at 3 o'clock, and is safe, self the fastest boat on the lower Ohio, and is the favorite of the people,..... Capt, Tom Bolus has bought the Louisa for $8,000-not $4,000 as stated in a St. Louis paper.
